President's Message

Dear Newcomers,

Welcome to "Fall in the Grand strand," which for us locals doesn't mean a change in colors . . . but no long lines in restaurants and easy driving on the Bypass and 501. We had a great turnout for our first luncheon at Gulfstream Café in Garden City and learned about our local turtle rescue program from our speaker from SCUTE. Reserve your seat today for our October lunch at Bonefish Grill, where the speaker will be Dana Ridenour, a local author and former FBI agent. Also, visit the special interest group table at this month's Coffee to find a group that fits your interest. Our charity for the month of October will be Coastal Animal Rescue.

Remember to wear your name tag at all Newcomer events!!
